

DAILY LEADER

FIFTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., TUESDAY, JANUARY 28, 1896.

ONE CENT.

CIRCULATION
LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a chain value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notions" free any more than a merchant can afford to give his goods free of cost. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

upon The Leader for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppers, excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, reductions of respect, etc., Two Lines will charge five cents a line, and hereafter this will be the reasonable rate. This however, does not include notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Does Not Include

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Notices in The Leader is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line notice inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—60 times—the bill is $10.00. When he finds this, he says, "a kick" and a controversy, followed probably by a long letter, and then, to obviate this trouble, no "bill for copy" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let us have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

For all matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

What We May Expect for the Next Twenty-four Hours.

A MATTER OF BUSINESS.

"Working" is a simple term—by common sense defined.

As "hustle," "get there"—"shake a leg"—in language unrefined.

We're working something all the time no matter what we do.

But watch the other fellow, for—he may be working you.

For instance, there are business schemes in which you would invest.

Your friend decides to let you in—because he loves you.

He doesn't want to make a cent, perhaps it may be true:

Keep your eye upon your friend—he may be working you.

Now, you of course, would not abuse the friendship of a man.

But when you see a dollar you will seize it if you can.

You would not work a friend—oh no—for friends are very few.

But look out for your warm friend—he may be working you.

You may have a friend in business who will let you go to work.

He does so just to please you, and no matter what he's lost.

He bows and scrapes and thanks you, just as other people do.

But never for a moment would he think of working you.

You work a snap yourself sometimes, and in a quiet way.

Invite your friends to join the dance and then the fiddler says:

"You don't know what you're driving at, because the scheme is new."

But while you're working all your friends—perhaps they're working you.

Today your bank account runs short, you simply borrow ten.

And say to him to-morrow with profound thanks—and then:

Your friend returns the compliment and multiplies by two.

You thought that you were working him while he was working you.

The moral of the thing is this—we're all an ax to grind.

Wait until your turn comes 'round, you may be left behind.

Just take your chances at the wheel, as all of us must do.

And work the other fellow, while—he thinks he's working you.

Miss Adah Lee Bousley, who has been laid up with a severe cold for several days, is improving.

Mr. J. M. C. Baileger will soon become a member of the clothing firm of J. Wesley Lee & Co.

Professor J. H. Kappes, formerly of the Public School of this city, is now a resident of Indianapolis.

Mr. James N. Kohler sold to Mr. G. S. Judd a house and lot near corner of Second and Union streets for $900.

Mr. Thomas J. Davis and Miss Tett Harmon, both of Fleming county, were married in this city yesterday by Judge Hutchins.

Master Commissioner James N. Kohler sold five lots on the Southwest corner of Third and Union streets to G. B. Pearce, Jr. for $800.

The Probationists are quietly circulating a petition to have a local option election held in Harrison county. A lively contest is expected.

Treasurer W. H. Cox of DeKalb Lodge was last night elected Trustee of Pisgah Encampment, in place of the late Brother Robert A. Cochran.

Mayor Cox has written to The Cincinnati Enquirer, in reply to a request from the Editor, expressing his hearty approval of the project for a canal from the lake to the Ohio river.

Colonel Lewis D. Sampson, the well-known versatile scribe formerly of The Kentucky Post, has assumed charge of The Commercial Gazette for Covington and Newport and suburbs.

The Knights of Pythias, Sons of Temperance and Oddfellows, in the aggregate, lose over 100,000 members by the declarations of the Pope, who says the ban is absolute and beyond discussion.

When you read in the paper that a young man "has accepted a situation as clerk with Messrs. Se and Se" it actually means that the young man has, after probably six months of "hustling," at last gotten a job.

Several members of the Legislature are down with colds and one or two have been barely able to drag themselves to the joint sessions. It is possible the Senatorial deadlock may be terminated by some serious illness.

Mr. Martin Maloney, aged about 30, died Saturday near Maysville of heart disease. He was taken sick while at work stripping tobacco, and expired in a few minutes. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon with burial at Washington.

Mayor Cox and City Attorney Chamberlain will go to Frankfort tomorrow morning to attend a convention of representatives of Fourth-class cities, which meets there for the purpose of procuring some much needed legislation for cities of that class.

Yesterday morning some of the jolly prisoners of the Jail thought they would fool the Turkey. They set fire to a lot of old mattresses, thinking he would let them out to escape the smoke. But the Turkey fooled them, and just let 'em smoke. The joke was a rank failure.

Robert Moore now sings a little song about this size:

10 mills I rent,

10 cents I drink,

10 drinks I drink,

1 drink $10—

With about as much added as costs for being disorderly.

Colonel R. R. Maltby is now interested in the big John H. Hibben Dry Goods Co. of Cincinnati, and will represent the house in this part of Kentucky.

The Colonel is so well known in connection with the dry goods trade that it will be only necessary to let his friends know that he is in the business to insure their orders.

Dr. S. Pangburn had rather a queer experience last night. A colored boy and a white man both called at his home at the same time for him to attend the sick, and the white man gave him the wrong address. The Doctor called at the place directed and found everybody in the best of health. If the gentleman will call at his office today he will be pleased to attend the patient.

The Ledger acknowledges the receipt of The Courier-Journal Almanac for 1896. It is indeed, as its title page indicates, a reference book for the home, office and farm, and it should be possessed by every one who would be conversant with the statistics of their state, their country and the world in general. For sale by all Courier-Journal Agents, or will be sent direct from the office at Louisville on receipt of 25 cents.

Judge Miller of Louisville says you can't send a prisoner to the Workhouse for longer than thirty days. If his decision stands it will empty the Louisville institution.

Mr. John Griffith presents his spectacular version of "Faust" at Washington Opera house February 31. This production differs from others, in that its attractiveness is materially enhanced by the introduction of scenic and mechanical effects, some of which are said to be of ingenious stage-settings, calcimines and electricity being largely drawn upon to aid in the arrangement of these artistic scenes. Mr. Griffith is an actor of experience, who has made the character of "Mephisto" a protracted study, imbuing it with most intense subtlety, always, even in the most tragic passages, showing stately shrewdness. In the scene with "Dr. Faustus" he is appropriately fawning and brow beating, as the occasion demands. His flirtation with "Dante Marthe" develops a litheness that repels while it amuses. A distinct reader and thoroughly acquainted with stage technique, his impersonation is said to be perfect in an artistic sense. The supporting company is capable, many well known artists being in the cast.

The announcement that Washington Fire Company was not in condition to meet the coupons payable 1st of February has called to its aid a number of its friends, some of whom have made liberal donations, and others have procured the advance of the sum necessary, so that we are pleased to be able to announce that the coupons will be paid on the 1st of February as usual.

The arrangement which has enabled the company to meet this obligation is a temporary one, and the generous people of Maysville will be asked to patronize a benefit which some of our local talent will give, proceeds of which we hope will relieve the company of its present rearrange.

Not a few who read what Mr. Robert Rowls of Hollands, Va., has to say below will remember their own experience under like circumstances. "Last winter I had a gripe which left me in a low state of health. I tried numerous remedies, none of which did me any good, until I was induced to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first bottle of it so far relieved me that I was enabled to attend to my work, and the second bottle effected a cure." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by J. Jas. Wood, Drugist.

A Man Doesn't

need a great deal of jewelry, but what he does wear ought to be good. It is the most extravagant sort of economy to pay too little for such things. If a man buys good buttons and studs the question is settled for sometime to come.

Good things not only last longer, but they look better. Most all jewelry is worn largely for ornament. To be sure it has its uses, and very necessary ones, but the ornamental feature is a strong one.

I will not handle anything that isn't good. I have several grades, of course,—some better than others, but all are to be depended upon.

The G. W. Morelock passed down yesterday with coal.

The Henry M. Stanley passed up last night for Pomeroy.

The Jim Wood passed up yesterday for Pittsburgh with a big tow of empties.

The marks register 15 feet 3 inches, a rise of about 6 feet, since yesterday morning.

The Allegheny ice is coming, and the boats are having lots of fun keeping out of its way.

The Shierly passed down last night from Pomeroy, and will be the Pomeroy packet tonight.

Ice out of the Allegheny prevented the coal tows from leaving Pittsburgh yesterday, but they will all leave today.

The Kanawha at Charleston is stationary, with 8 feet 4 inches on the marks, at Kanawha Falls 7 feet 6 inches and 4 feet 4 inches at Hinton.

The Keystone State, billed to pass down last night from Pittsburgh, did not fill the bill, owing to the heaviness of the ice. She will pass down some time today.

The Board of Consulting Engineers for the Lake Erie and Ohio River Canal has recommended 15 feet as the best depth for the proposed ship canal from Lake Erie to the Ohio river at Pittsburgh, as that depth will accommodate the majority of the lake traffic. With a bottom width of 100 feet, a surface width of 152 feet and locks 340 feet long, the total cost is estimated to be within $30,000,000.

The Cincinnati and Memphis, Cincinnati and New Orleans and Cincinnati and Louisville packets are all feeling the effects of the new water and ice in the Ohio. When the Pittsburgh packets are not running the down-stream boats connecting with them at Cincinnati are deprived of much reshipping freight. The wheelboats at Cincinnati are filled with Southern freight awaiting reshipment to Pittsburgh and other upper Ohio river points.

FATAL FIRE.

Two Little Children Burned to Death at Pittsburgh.

The Mother Fatally Injured by Jumping From the Window.

Remains of Trouble With Her Husband's New York Woman Found Dead in Pittsburgh—The Mother Then Succeeded in Murder and Robbery at Tonkers.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 28.—Mary, aged 5 years, and Norah, aged 3 years, children of Mr. and Mrs. John Steele, of 102 South Sixth street, this city, were burned to death, and Mrs. Steele sustained probably fatal injuries in jumping from the second story window of their home about 9 o'clock Monday night. Two other children escaped harm by their mother lowering them in a sheet from a window into the hands of those below.

Mrs. Steele was absent at work. Mrs. Steele and her four children were in the second-story front bedroom. The children were playing when the lamp was accidentally upset and exploded. The monetary loss is small.

New York, Jan. 28.—Mrs. Ida Work, 40 years old, living at No. 467 North street, Brooklyn, Monday afternoon gave birth to her two boys, Otto and William, aged eight and six respectively, and then swallowed some of the poison herself.

All three were taken to St. Catherine's hospital.

The mother died shortly after her arrival and the two children are in a critical condition.

Before she became unconscious the mother said that she had taken the step because of trouble with her husband.

YONKERS, N. Y., Jan. 28.—A daring robbery, followed by a murder, occurred in this city Monday night. The victim was Mrs. Edmund Tucker, who resided on Central avenue, near Bronxville. Mr. Tucker arrived at his home shortly after seven o'clock Monday night and found his five-year-old boy in the back room. The child informed him that a man wearing a beard had entered the house about dusk and struck and choked his mother. Mr. Tucker immediately became a search and found the body of a burglar had repeatedly struck and kicked her. The child has an injury on the right temple and the finding of the body a search of the house was made and it was found that considerable jewelry and clothing had been taken. The general opinion is that Mr. Tucker discovered the burglar in the sitting room and when she made an outcry he killed her.

IN THE HOUSE.

The Armenian Congress Resolution, After a Four Hours' Debate, Passed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The House, Monday, discussed for four hours and passed by a vote of 160 to 50, the Senate concurrent resolution, providing it to be an imperative duty of the United States to express the earnest hope that the European concert brought about by the Berlin treaty may be speedily given its just effect in such decisive measures as shall stay the hand of fanaticism and lawless violence and as shall secure to the unoffending Christians of the Turkish empire the rights belonging to them as men and Christians and as beneficiaries of the explicit provisions of that treaty; requesting the president to communicate these resolutions to the five signatory powers thereof, and declaring that congress will support the president in the most vigorous action he may take for the protection and security of American citizens in Turkey and to obtain redress for injuries committed upon the persons and property of such citizens.

Mr. Quigg (rep. N. Y.), at whose request the resolution was taken up, opened the debate and advocated its adoption, as did also Messrs. McNary (rep. Ky.), Hitt (rep. Ill.), Moore (rep. Mass.), Smith (rep. Mich.), Mahany (rep. N. Y.), Braum (rep. Pa.), Sperry (rep. Ct.), and Howe (rep. N. Y.).

Various amendments were offered to it on the ground that it did not go far enough—one by Mr. Hepburn (rep. Ia.) calling for the dismissal of the Turkish minister at Washington and the severance of diplomatic relations with Turkey, but they were rejected. Messrs. Turner (dem. Ga.), Grosvenor (rep. O.), Walsh (dem. N. H.), Adams (rep. N. Y.), (rep. Cal.) and Bailey (dem. Tex.) argued against the resolution.

The diplomatic and consular appropriation for the coming fiscal year was reported. A bill was passed to permit the sale in small parcels of certain lands in Minnesota.

The house at 4:35 o'clock adjourned until Tuesday.

Accidentally Shot Her Lover.

LYONS, Neb., Jan. 28.—James Williams, a young farmer, died, the result of a pistol shot inflicted last Friday when he was soon to wed. The two were playing with the weapon, and the shooting was purely accidental. The young woman is nearly distressed over the death of her lover.

Highwayman Dies From His Wounds.
